VOL. XXVIII

A Year Book of Maryville College

PUBLISHED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS

DEDICATION

To

THAT GRACIOUS LADY

MRS. RALPH WALDO LLOYD

mistress of the President's home and mistress of our hearts, we dedicate this book in grateful appreciation for her sincere friendship, her charming hospitality and her kindly interest in every college student.

FOREWORD

TO preserve and perpetuate college memories for future years has been our aim in compiling this annual—memories of athletic, cultural, and scholastic achievement; of worthwhile friendships long to be cherished; of helpful contacts with officers and teachers; of happy, busy days lived under the silent influence of the Maryville Spirit.

1933 FOOTBALL SQUAD

Review of the Season

Everything considered, the 1933 football season was far from unsuccessful, despite the fact that the Highlanders won four games, lost five, and tied one.

Facing one of the toughest schedules that has ever confronted a Maryville machine, the Scots settled down to the task with all the energy that has characterized Coach Honaker's teams in past years.

The opening game of the season with Kentucky was lost, as was expected, 46 to 2, but in defeat a green sophomore forward wall gave promise of developing into one of the strongest units that has represented Maryville in the past few years.

After a scoreless tie with Tennessee Wesleyan, the Highlanders hit a stride that carried them to two consecutive conference victories. Tusculum and King, two of the loop's leaders, bowed on successive week-ends and things looked rosy for Coach Honaker's cohorts.

The turning point of the season came when the Maryvillians suffered a 25-to-0 lacing at the hands of Middle Tennessee Teachers. Pat Shores, former Maryville athlete, brought a fine Lenoir-Rhyne team down out of the mountains of North Carolina the following week and administered the second straight defeat to the Scots.

Tennessee State Teachers, coached by Gene McMurray, another former Maryville star, gave Maryville its worst defeat at the hands of a conference foe all season, but Coach Honaker brought his men out of the valley of despair and Cullowhee and Milligan bowed on successive Saturdays.

The final game of the season found the Scots facing their traditional rival, Carson-Newman. The Eagles, conference champions for two straight years, overwhelmed the Orange and Garnet, but Maryville's play was far from discouraging.

There will be a wealth of material returning next year, so the watchword for the future should be: Look Up!

STEVE BORETSKY

Halfback

The backbone of the Highlanders' offense throughout the year, that was Steve. His play in the Tusculum, King, and Carson-Newman games will long be remembered in Maryville College football. Boretsky is a senior, and Coach Honaker will find it a difficult task indeed to fill his shoes next year. Conference honors were heaped upon this eel-like runner both this year and last year.

MARTIN GILLESPIE

Fullback

When better defensive fullbacks than Martin play under the Orange and Garnet, it will probably be after this generation has reached a ripe old age. Opposing backfield men will find life more pleasant next season when they line up against Maryville and find another man in the squatty Gillespie's position.

JOHN S. KISER

Halfback

Kiser was a senior before he really came into his own. Reporting for football four years ago without the benefit of high school experience, the Friendsville boy showed a desire to learn that won him a place on the varsity eleven before he was ready to hang up his uniform. He was on the receiving end of a number of West's passes this year.

TOM WEST

Quarterback

"West dropped back and rifled a beautiful pass to Atkins over the goal line for a touchdown." "West drove through the line, cut back and raced across the goal line for another score." Those things were true of Tom, and more. It was his generalship, kicking, running, and passing that carried the Highlanders to more than one victory.

STROUD GWYNN

End

Handicapped by his size, but making up for it in fight and craftiness, Gwynn was a real asset this year. When power plays came his way, Gwynn met them with what it takes to prevent long gains. This was Gwynn's last year as a Highlander, and you can bet that coaches, players, and students hate to see him go.

JACK ATKINS

End

Little yardage was made around Jack's end this season. Although handicapped by injuries part of the year, he came back and played some of the best football of his career near the end of the season. He is another senior, and just you notice how badly he is missed next year.

SHADY PAYNE

Quarterback

Shady didn't play regularly this year, but a certain smoothness was noticeable in the Highlander machine when he did the quarterbacking. Payne stuck with the team faithfully throughout his college course, and his unselfishness gained him the respect of players and coaches alike. He, too, is a senior.

LEON MILLSAPS

Tackle

Not the biggest tackle the Highlanders have ever had, but one of the toughest. "Buck" accomplished the unusual, and made the varsity in his first year under the Orange and Garnet. There's plenty of woe in store for Highlander opponents for the next two seasons, and it is not likely that Coach Bob Thrower will worry over the strength of his position during that time.

LOUIS KALMAN

If Lou can shake off the injury jinx next year, the left side of Coach Bob Thrower's line will be safe for democracy. This was Kalman's second year on the varsity, and the Ohio boy should be a terror next season. For dependability, he'll do until a better flankman comes along.

LAMAR BLAZER

Quarterback

Blazer's "come on, run 'em my way" attitude gave him just the needed confidence to make the Highlanders an invaluable quarterback this year. He came up as a freshman last year and won his letter against competition furnished by veteran quarterbacks. When the Highlanders line up in the opening game next year against Kentucky, you will find this swaggering youngster in there yelling, "Come on, run 'em my way."

M. H. GAMBLE

Tackle

Plugging away, asking no quarter of the enemy and giving none, Mose proved to be a real find this year, and Smoky Mountain Conference honors were awarded him at the end of his second season. With this 200-pound frame at a tackle position next year, what do we have to lose?

FRANK ATCHISON

Guard

When this 190 pounds of brawn and muscle came up from Maryville High School, Coach Honaker wasn't sure whether he would be a fullback, guard, tackle, or manager of the soccer team. "Butter" found himself at guard, and there he has been for two years. This quiet spoken chap reminds old timers of the days when Lowell McDonald, Millard Tolliver, Carl Storey, and other great guards roamed the Maryville grid.

DELMAS COLLINS

Guard

When "Batty" came to Maryville, Coach Honaker shoved him into a guard slot and made no mistake. His play last year branded him as a coming luminary, what with his speed and downright savageness. He had a fling at fullbacking this year, and came through O. K., but he ended the year back in his old position. Ask any of his opponents. Just ask 'em.

WILBUR LOESSBERG

Halfback

Once this deer-like runner got past the line of scrimmage, he was hard to stop short of the goal line. Speed gained as a dash man on the track team furnished Loessberg with that necessity that goes to make a dangerous halfback. You'll see plenty of this Texas jack-rabbit in his two remaining years.

MAURICE BAILEY

Center

Stepping into the breach at the pivot position late in the season, Bailey took care of the snapper back duties in a manner that would do credit to a veteran. Although he played little last year, he came up fast this season, and before he hangs up his moleskins he should be a really brilliant performer. He'll bear watching next year.

PAUL KLINK

Guard

Here's another man who accomplished that feat unusual in college football. He made his letter as a first-year man, and it will be a man-sized job to keep him off the varsity next season. Klink came back after an injury and played bang-up football in every game in which he took part. Not flashy, but the kind of man who brings smiles to the coaches' faces.

ARCHIBALD PIEPER

Center

The first man on the practice field, and the last one to leave. Pieper came up from Texas without a lot of football experience, but he showed the will to learn and that is just what he did. The end of the season found him in the middle of the Scot line in every game. He played center and guard, and was equally proficient at both.

LOUIS KRAINOCK

Halfback

Serving his third year on the squad, Louie found himself near the end of the season and performed in great style at a halfback post. He was one of the glittering lights in Maryville's disastrous defeat at the hands of State Teachers, and who will soon forget the part he played in the Milligan rout?

WILLIAM HOLADAY

Guard

Holaday aspired to be a tackle when he went out for football this year, but Coach Thrower decided that he had the necessary qualities of a first-rate guard. He played plenty of football this year, and fully justified the confidence that was placed in him. He is another first-year man, and in looking around for guards next year, it is likely that the coaches will give Holaday the nod.

Front Row: Ridder, Hoglan, Kipp, Allen, Capt. Boretsky, Byar, Millsaps, Gamble
Second Row: Kidd, Coulter, Gray, Dean, Montgomery, James Battaglia

STATE WRESTLING CHAMPIONS

Review of the Season

Robert C. Thrower . . . . . Coach
Steve Boretsky . . . . . Captain
Rollie Huffstetler . . . . . Manaeger

Wrestling has become one of the leading sports at Maryville College. Since Coach Bob Thrower has been in charge of the wrestling team his matmen have never been defeated, having won the state collegiate championship for the past three years. The Highlander wrestling team has consistently shown that it is the best mat aggregation ever seen in this section.

This year's team was truly a brilliant one. With a team of veterans with which to work, Coach Bob Thrower lost little time in moulding a championship team. Seven matches were scheduled, and no less than exactly seven matches were won in a comparatively easy manner, with the exception of the affair with Appalachian State Teachers, which the Highlanders won by the close margin of 16-14.

Gary Ridder, George Hoglan, Steve Boretsky, Madison Byar, Buck Millsaps, and Mose Gamble were on hand with the necessary experience behind them when Coach Bob issued the call this year. The six veterans took over varsity jobs with little difficulty, while Kipp, Dean, and Allen succeeded in gaining varsity positions.

With the loss of only Captain Boretsky, Byar, and Kipp next year, the Highlanders will stand a good chance of continuing their marvelous undefeated, championship record.

Review of the Season

Lombe S. Honaker . . . . . Coach
John S. Kiser . . . . . Captain
H. W. Lampe . . . . . Manager

Basketball this season, along with wrestling, came back to the front. Starting the season with only two lettermen, Coach Lombe Scott Honaker whipped a team together that won 17 games and lost only eight during the season. The Highlanders placed third in the Smoky Mountain Conference standing.

Captain Johnny Kiser and Rex Allen were the only men with experience returning for the team this year, and to say that prospects looked everything but bright would be putting it mildly. A wealth of freshman material made a successful season possible.

Milligan College, Tennessee State Teachers, Lincoln Memorial University, Appalachian State Teachers and Carson-Newman were the only conference teams to win victories over the Scots. Coach Honaker's team turned the tables on all of these teams with the exception of Appalachian Teachers, who were met in a single game. With such men as Allen, Hannah, Pearson, Van Hee, Crumbaugh, Henry, Atchison, and Brittain returning next year, the outlook is anything but gloomy.

THE 1933 TRACK SEASON

The 1933 track team was one of the best ever produced at Maryville College. With such veterans as Captain Moore, Hitch, Byar, and Russell to form a nucleus for the team, Coach Thrower developed a track team that gave superb performance on every occasion.

The track team had a very successful season, making three hundred and thirteen points to its opponents' one hundred and fifty-five. Coach Thrower took his men to the Southeastern A. A. U. meet at Elizabethton, where the Highlanders showed their supremacy over all other contenders by winning the meet with sixty-three points. Emory-Henry won second place with only thirty-seven points. Besides being the Southeastern A. A. U. Champions, the Highlanders won the Smoky Mountain Conference title.

Many new college track records were established during the 1933 season. The fact that eight new records were established shows that Coach Thrower had one of the best teams in the history of the College.

The following new records were established during the 1933 season:

440-yard run, by Snedeker	Time, 52 secs.
880-yard run by Hitch	Time, 2:00.6 mins.
1-mile run by Moore	Time, 4:29.5 mins.

1933 BASEBALL TEAM

Review of the Season

The 1933 Highlander baseball team ended the season with the remarkable record of fourteen games won out of twenty played. In the intercollegiate contests, Maryville bowed only to Carson-Newman, East Tennessee Teachers, and Emory-Henry, losing two games by one-run decisions. West, star shortstop, and Park and Duff, the nucleus of the pitching staff, were lost by graduation.

BAINONIAN SOCIETY

Always looking forward to future goals rather than backward to her many past achievements, Bainonian Society is an organization that is ever growing. She enlarges her scope of vision as well as her membership in the realization that numbers are of no avail without aspirations to attain.

The field of activities in which Bainonians participate comprises forensics, journalism, art, athletics, and all phases of college life. Where projects are being launched and carried out, members of Bainonian Society are among the enthusiasts.

The Society has been gratified in seeing her new members catch the spirit of fellowship that has prevailed since her organization fifty-nine years ago. Pioneers then, Bainonians are still pioneers in the process of making Maryville College outstanding among Christian institutions in the South. May this attitude lead Bainonian Society on to greater accomplishments.

ATHENIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Athenian Literary Society, the oldest society on the Hill, has remained one of the most outstanding in the dignity and worth of its activities. Since it was founded in 1868 it has helped its members cultivate the virtues of loyalty, co-operation, and service.

Athenians are always influential in the student life, and at present they fill the major offices of the Hill. Their attainments in dramatic, athletic, and forensic lines are noteworthy.

In response to the trend of modern requirements, the society is making successful efforts to render worth-while interests of a cultural sort, more attractive and enjoyable. The literary element is conserved in the weekly programs as an important means to this end.

The society looks forward to greater accomplishments in such service, through that fellowship that makes Athenian membership a grateful memory.

THETA EPSILON SOCIETY

No student at Maryville could boast a finer privilege of college fellowship than each Theta has found in her society. Since 1894 the broad interests of the society have offered a splendid scope for the self-expression of its members in many fields. Special talent has been shown by Thetas in music, drama, debating, and writing.

Theta Epsilon Society members represent the best talent on the campus, holding positions of honor and responsibility in various student organizations. Theta is well represented in such organizations as Pi Kappa Delta, Theta Alpha Phi, the College Players, the Highland Echo and others. Theta can well be proud that the May Queen for the past five years has been chosen from her ranks.

Co-operation is a by-word of this society. The pleasant comradeship and agreeable sharing of experiences enjoyed by these "Happy Sisters" could lead only to success.

ALPHA SIGMA SOCIETY

Alpha Sigma Society was founded in 1882, its primary purpose being to develop the literary phase of college life. Its name then was Alpha Sigma Literary Society.

During the present year it was decided to make the primary purpose to promote a spirit of fellowship among the students. "Literary" was dropped from the name.

In all the activities, academic, scholastic, athletic, and social, Alpha Sigma has its leaders who are well qualified in their attainments. There is a sense of true sportsmanship that is evident at all times and which identifies Alpha Sigma men.

The fellowship, social relations, spirit of co-operation, and leadership that are derived from membership in Alpha Sigma play a predominant part in the college life of every society member.

Alpha Sigma will continue to carry on its fine work in every department of college activities through the quality of men who always select Alpha Sigma as their medium of friendship, workmanship, and true relationship.

"On, on, onward Alpha Sigma, higher, brothers, ever higher;
Struggle upward unto light. Strive for truth, for right, for might,
For 'tis great and grand and noble to aspire."

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. is one of the most important phases of the life on the Hill.

The purpose of a "full and creative life" as included in the active members' pledge, is stressed through the different activities.

Devotional services are held each morning in the women's dormitories. Studies of life problems are made which bring out the development of richer and stronger inner lives. The Sunday meetings aim to give an opportunity for expression to as many girls as possible and at the same time to contribute to a growing and progressive spiritual life for the group. Toward this end both personal problems and topics of world-wide significance are included in the program.

The athletic department, which sponsors the tennis tournaments, stresses the development of the habits of health and exercise that build strong bodies fit to be temples of the Holy Spirit.

The "Barnwarming," which is the annual Thanksgiving party for the student body; the May Day program, the Nu Gamma and "Big Sister" movements, all sponsored by the Y. W., promote the joy of social fellowship. Co-operating with the Y. M., the Y. W. is responsible for the production of the "M" Handbook and for the promotion of the Artist Series.

The privilege of service in a material way is achieved through work at the Sunnybrook Mission and at the Orphanage. Contributions to "Pete the Pig" for use in a leper colony, and activity in World Fellowship projects round out the development of Christian service.

Active membership, this past year, has been one of the aims of the organization. Heretofore, membership in the organization has been automatic upon the registration of the student at the college. Active membership entitles one to vote and to hold office on the Y. W. Cabinet. About one hundred and twenty new girls indicated their desire to take active part in the work of the association.

The advisory Board of the College Y. W. C. A. is composed of the following members:

Mrs. R. W. Lloyd, Miss Almira Bassett, Mrs. H. C. Wright, Mrs. Otto Pflanze, Miss Jessie Johnson, Miss Merle Beebe, Professor Kenneth Lagerstedt.

The Y. W. C. A. is an organization of world-wide influence. The Maryville unit of this great system aims to give the highest ideals of Christian service to the college.

Under the inspiration of the motto, "To Know Christ and to Make Him Known," the activities of the Group were carried on with enthusiasm throughout the year. These included the Student Volunteer Library, the World News Bulletin, the weekly programs and the Bible Study Class. A study of The Progress of World-Wide Missions was added to the regular Bible study.

Due to the use of the committee system all members of the Group were able to participate in the weekly meetings. Student programs were alternated with many practical and inspirational addresses by returned missionaries.

Delegates were sent to the Fall Retreat and Spring Conference. A board was set up on the campus to keep Scripture gems before the student body. When possible, Student Volunteers co-operated with the Ministerial Association in mission work at Lamar Chapel.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Ministerial Association of Maryville College, founded in 1900, has as its purpose the promoting of Christian fellowship among students who are candidates for the ministry, and the providing of varied opportunities to its members for definite Christian service. This purpose has been achieved in the program of the Association during the past year. Fellowship has been extended through the agency of the regular weekly meetings which have been a source of spiritual enrichment and refreshment to those who have dedicated their lives to active Christian work.

The program has been well-rounded by the acquisition of the privileges of holding services in the country churches, the County Almshouse, and the County Jail. In these activities the members of the Association have received practical and helpful experience and have thereby been better fitted to meet the tasks of the ministry.

The personnel of the Ministerial Association is made up of those students who have as their hope and purpose the serving of God through definite and full-time or part-time Christian labor. More than forty-five men from widely separated states and countries have availed themselves of the privileges of membership in the Association. Through the efforts and lives of these men the Ministerial Association has become one of the strongest religious organizations of the College, and one of the most influential in the furthering of Christian ideals on the campus.

NU GAMMA SIGMA

Nu Gamma is a branch of the Y. W. C. A. having the purpose of helping to orient new girls into Maryville College life.

The organization is divided into small groups of new girls. The leaders this year were:

Myrtis Baldwin
Mary Gladys Brown
Sue Calhoun
Marie Carlson
Mary Hollis Carter
Cecelia Conover
Marjorie Fleming
Ruth Flint
Nina Gamble
Christeen Hammett
Florence Hyde
Elizabeth Kunkel
Helen Rusk
Pauline Throne
Alice Timblin
Edith Vanaman
Muriel Waechter
Katherine Wayland
Mary Sloane Welsh

Thelma Iles and Lucille Swafford acted as general chairmen.

The activities of Nu Gamma consist of a series of group meetings in which discussions are held on such subjects as Christ on the campus, campus customs, class room ethics, social rules, and dormitory life.

At the beginning of the year Nu Gamma held a breakfast hike for all new girls. Through the year picnics and hikes were held by the separate groups.

IN MEMORIAM

ANNA JOSEPHINE JONES

Died April 10, 1934

As the 1934 Chilhowean goes to press the news of the sudden death of Miss Jones, our beloved registrar and sincere friend, causes grief and sadness to all who knew her. Her cheerful personality, and her untiring service and loyal devotion to the college will long be remembered.

DOUGLAS WOODS

Died April 3, 1934

A member of the freshman class, Douglas Woods was an active and popular student. His sudden death at his home in Greenback, Tennessee, was a shock to the students and the faculty of the college.
